

U.S. ELECTION WATCH

What the vote means for Alberta industry

OCTOBER 26TH 2016
Calgary Petroleum Club
CALGARY, ALBERTA

U.S. ELECTION WATCH

What the vote means for Alberta industry

PROGRAM

5:00 – 7:30 PM

5:00 – 6:00 PM	Reception
6:00 PM	Welcome &amp; opening remarks
6:15 – 7:15 PM	Panel discussion
7:15 PM	Wrap-up &amp; closing remarks

*U.S. voters will choose a new president on November 8, and will get a new Administration in January 2017.
Find out how these changes will affect Alberta industries and our cross-border trade and investment.*

The PANELISTS

MaryScott (Scotty) Greenwood Washington, D.C.

Scotty is a specialist in Canada/U.S. relations and Senior Adviser to the Canadian-American Business Council. She is a Principal at Dentons and is a former political appointee in the Clinton Administration. She was recognized by the Hill Times as one of the Top 100 People Influencing Canadian Foreign Policy in 2014.

Greg Anderson

Greg is a political scientist at the University of Alberta, expert on international political economy and North American integration, and author on Canada-U.S. relations and the politics of international trade and investment policy. He was previously a NAFTA Policy Analyst in the Office of the United States Trade Representative.

Roy Berg

Roy is U.S. tax expert with Moodys Gartner Tax Law LLP. A specialist on cross-border tax matters, he was admitted to the bar associations of the U.S. Tax Court, California, Washington, and Alberta. He is a frequent writer and speaker on foreign account tax compliance and cross-border tax.

Ian Brodie

Ian is a political scientist at University of Calgary's School of Public Policy and former Chief of Staff to Prime Minister Stephen Harper. He held that office until July 1, 2008. After leaving government, Brodie focused on international financial and political developments as Strategic Adviser at the Inter-American Development Bank.

Carlo Dade

Carlo is as Director of the Canada West Foundation's Centre for Trade & Investment Policy and Senior Associate at the Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington, D.C. He is a leading global expert on pan-Pacific trade, including the Trans-Pacific Partnership and Pacific Alliance trade blocs, North American competitiveness and Canada-Mexico relations.

David Gray Event Moderator

David Gray hosts the CBC Radio morning show, the Calgary Eyeopener. With more than two decades of experience as a journalist, David has covered stories around the world, focusing on Europe and North America. Seven of those years were spent as a travelling correspondent for CBC-TV's business documentary program, Venture.

THANK YOU
TO OUR SPONSORS

ATB Financial™

moody's
gartner tax law™

WESTJET

amchamcanadawest.com

